

CENTRO PRIMO LEVI

MONDAY, MAY 5 AT 7 PM

SILVERSMITHS AND LITERATI: MODENA'S JEWRY FROM THE RENAISSANCE TO EMANCIPATION

A fascinating multimedia presentation and an evening of full immersion in the culture and historical traditions of the Jews of Italy.

FEDERICA FRANCESCONI, University of Haifa

The Jewish community of Modena --capital of the Estense Duchy in Northern Italy- played a central role in forming the spirit of modern Italian and European Jewry. Through business creativity, philanthropy, the arts, and international familial alliances, Modenese Jews cultivated their own identity, bringing to life a microcosm of exceptional cultural and social complexity.

Center for Jewish History | 15 West 16th Street, New York City
Reception to follow

Admission: $10 | With this ad: $7 Jewish Week discount code: CPLJW
Tickets: (212) 868-4444 or online www.smarttix.com

Confartigianato
Federimprese Emilia-Romagna

 Regione Emilia-Romagna

DISCOVER THE WORLD OF ITALIAN JEWRY

Visit our website today!

May news include the opening of the Primo Levi International Research Institute in Turin, the story of mathematician Vito Volterra, and Centro Primo Levi's upcoming programs for the 60th Anniversary of the State of Israel.

SAVE THE DATE: MAY 12

PROGRAM
NEWS

Don't miss the last session of the extraordinary lecture series
JEWES, CHRISTIANS AND THE ROMAN EMPIRE with Natalie Dohrmann (University of Pennsylvania) on May 12!

www.primolevicenter.org